

Michelle Kuhl

Piano

November 16, 2018

12:00 p.m.

First Presbyterian Church
203. N. Almer St.
Caro, Michigan 48723
www.carofirst.org

REBECCA BONAM

Come, Christians, Join to Sing

AUDREJEAN HEYDENBURG (b. 1943)

To God Be the Glory, with Étude Op. 10, No. 12 in C minor (Frédéric Chopin)

JOHANN SEBASTIAN BACH (1685-1750)

“Allegro” from The Italian Concerto, BWV 971

ENRIQUE GRANADOS (1867-1916)

Allegro de Concierto, Op. 46

AUDREJEAN HEYDENBURG (b. 1943)

His Name is Wonderful, with Prelude No. 21 (Frédéric Chopin)

AUDREJEAN HEYDENBURG (b. 1943)

How Great Thou Art, with Un Sospiro (Franz Liszt)

Studying the piano from a young age, MICHELLE KUHL attended Spring Arbor University. Under the instruction of Audrejean Heydenburg, she graduated with a Bachelor of Arts degree in piano performance. Michelle has accompanied tenor Carlos Seise and baritone Quinto Milito. She was a staff accompanist with Cornerstone University, and she assisted various organizations and universities including Calvin College, the Holland Chorale, and the Grand Rapids Concert Band. Michelle, her husband Justin, and their three children live in Bay Port, where Michelle teaches privately, performs concerts, and accompanies for solo and ensemble festivals. Michelle has completed three recording projects: Under My Fingers, Under The Evergreens, and Under His Grace.