Storytelling, whether through songwriting or videography, has always been a passion of Sarah's. SARAH HUDSON began her professional singing career at age nine and started writing songs at age fourteen. She has opened for national acts including both Willie and Lukas Nelson, The Steeldrivers, The Vespers, and Donna The Buffalo, and was invited to sing at the White House in 2001. In 2011, Sarah was a top finalist in the John Lennon National Songwriting Competition and awarded Ohio's Best Young Artist by the Ohio Arts Presenter's Network. She has also toured regionally with Columbus-based, all-female band The Salty Caramels. Sarah currently resides in Columbus, Ohio, with her husband Brad and two-year-old son, Finn.
